DEDICATION

MR. W. J. BULLOCK, Superintendent

To a friend of Cannon High School, who, by his enthusiasm and love for our school shown through nine years of service, has made himself beloved by all; to Mr. W. J. Bullock, superintendent of the Kannapolis Schools, we dedicate this 1940 edition of THE CANNON REPORT.

SENIORS

SENIOR CLASS POEM

The road we've traveled hasn't been an easy one
Nor a very, very difficult one either, you can bet,
But we've finally finished one lap of the way,
And we've to finish the remaining ones yet.

They won't be as easy as the one we've passed,
But we'll all work with more zeal
Until the future is all past and gone,
And many of our dreams have become real.

To all the students we're leaving behind,
Our best wishes for the future we leave.
May they travel the road we've gone over before them
And many more helps receive.

Than we, who are leaving with many regrets
And many more happy memories and thoughts
Of the pleasant years we've spent here at school
And of the many battles we've fought.

To gain the places we now occupy and are giving up
To the students who will take those positions
To carry on the work we've left for them to do,
That of studying hard, and keeping up old traditions.

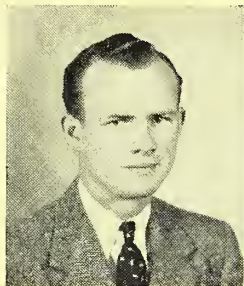

We, the Seniors are proud of our school
And proud to be students here
So for Cannon High School, you can always be sure
We're ready to give a lusty cheer.

Though we are leaving, we'll never forget,
And our memories will always be clear
Of the happy days we've spent at high school,
And those memories will be held very dear.

From year to year, as the years pass by,
We'll remember our high school days,
And always, even in the latest years,
Our school will receive our very highest praise.

—By Gaynelle Cooke.

CLASS HISTORY

In the year of our Lord, nineteen hundred thirty-six, two hundred sixty pilgrims in search of knowledge landed on the shores of a country new and vastly different to them. The country in which they settled was known as Cannon High School. These pilgrims banded together to form a new settlement. The members of this new settlement were known as Freshmen by the more experienced settlers.

Every group, whether its members be seeking freedom, precious metals, or wisdom, must have leaders. Mr. J. W. Harbison was the chief leader of this tribe, and Mr. H. B. Baker, Mr. W. E. Alexander, Miss Lollie Boyd, Miss Estelle Farris, Mr. E. H. Lewis, Miss Mildred Hutchinson, Mr. Guy Womble, and Mr. W. A. Masten were his assistants.

This new land in which we had settled was run on democratic principles, so for this settlement Horace Robertson was elected president; Margaret Goodman, vice-president; and Ola Mae Barbee, secretary and treasurer.

In our first year in this new country, a society, the Alpha Chi Sigma, was formed to honor worthy members of the whole country.

Quickly a year passed, and the band of Freshman had advanced far enough in their search for knowledge that they were ready to occupy the territory just vacated by the Sophomores. In this new territory they were known by the name of their predecessors, the Sophomores.

Again Mr. J. W. Harbison was the chief leader, but Miss Mary Parks Bell, Miss Margaret Boylan, Miss Margaret Franks, Miss Mary Gaffney, and Mr. J. D. Taylor had been chosen as assistants. Paul Kearns served as president.

The Freshman year had been rough, and many had fallen by the way; but two hundred fourteen, ninety-one boys and one hundred twenty-three girls, held steadfastly to their goals.

Another year sped by, and the seekers after wisdom had reached Junior territory. The Sophomore year had been difficult, and the tribe had dwindled in size to now number only one hundred thirty-six.

During the third year Mr. John L. Dupree was chief leader, and Miss Margaret Boylan, Mrs. E. H. Lewis, Miss Helen Smith, and Mr. J. D. Taylor were counselors. In period three, Harold Patterson was president.

Since the pilgrims had become accustomed to the land, the way was becoming easier so there was more time for recreation. The Juniors entertained the Seniors at a banquet at the Yadkin Hotel in Salisbury. They, in turn, entertained the Juniors at a Senior-Junior Party. The Student Council had as its guests delegates from other high schools to the State Student Council Congress.

The lowly Freshmen had traveled so far in their search for increased knowledge, and had been so successful that now they were in the mightiest tribe of all, the Seniors.

Mr. John L. Dupree was again chief leader, and Miss Loraine Gray, Miss Helen Whitley, Mrs. Julia McLendon Neal, and Mrs. John Oehler were counselors. Horace Robertson was president of the Seniors; Coralie Roberts, vice-president; Sarah Yates, secretary; and Murray Jackson, treasurer.

In this last year the Quill and Scroll, an honor society for the outstanding journalists, was inaugurated. Also in this year Student Administration Day had its beginning. A day exclusively for the Seniors was set aside in this, being called Senior Day.

Period four was highlighted by many social functions. The Seniors entertained the Juniors at a Senior-Junior Party. A most enjoyable event was the Barn-Warming, but the outstanding social event of the year was the Junior-Senior Banquet.

With the close of epoch four, our journey through the country of Cannon High School is over, but wider and more difficult fields lie before us. As we go into the world we must conquer each arising difficulty, as here we have conquered the old, so that at the very end each of us can proudly say: "I came, I saw, I conquered."

—Myra Wilson.

PROPHECY

Lights! Laughter! Loud Noise! Happy voices! It's all a beautiful mix-up of loud noise and savory smells. Where am I? Why, I'm at the circus of course and having a wonderful time. What's that?? Why, it's the Crazy House!! Am I going in? Why certainly. Inside I feel perfectly at home and at once head for the department of mirrors with full speed. CRASH!!! A loud noise, people talking, broken glass falling everywhere, and me???? Why, I'm floating away on a beautiful soft, snowy, cloud. I hear the sweetest music and a million birds singing all at one time. Where am I?? Well, I'm sitting way up on top of a cloud and looking down on all my former classmates! I see——

Our former class president, Horace Robertson is now the District Attorney of New York and Nancy Long is employed as his secretary. Mr. Robertson is a nation-wide success and is expected to run for president in the next election. His success is partly due to his political manager, Charles Alexander.

Out in Hollywood I see our old friend Harold Patterson playing the lead in all of the newest western pictures. The "Lone Ranger" seems to have faded away and in his place is "Harold," the delight of all the kiddies, with his famous "Hi ho Cleo!" (Cleo is a Camel). Clifford Fowler also went to Hollywood and after Hedy Lamarr took one look at him she divorced her husband. Avanelle Williford is doing all right for herself modeling for magazine covers, while Ann Lynn McDonald, who is now a red-head and Doris Lindsay, a confirmed brunette, are the newest advertisers for Max Factor Make-Up.

Up in New York, Jack Bassinger has become the chief cartoonist for the N. Y. Times with G. F. Coble as his assistant. Working on the same paper staff is Frankie Patterson, Sports Editor; Dorothy Ann Bell, a famous war correspondent over in Europe; and Myra Wilson, who is the Society Editor.

Mike Yorke is now in a training camp in Chicago, with his manager Earl Correll, preparing for a meet with Joe Lewis, who is still the world's champion boxer. "Hoby" Ellison is now a big league pitcher while Jamima Powell is a physical education director in an exclusive school in Southern California.

Margaret Goodman is now the Dean of Boys in an outstanding college in Alabama. She is apparently in love with her "work." Mildred Heintz is now a teacher of economics in our own K. H. S. (Mr. Hudson, after having taught the class of '40, resigned and absolutely refused to have anything more to do with economics or sociology.)

In the business world, I see John Dial and Carl Fisher as the successful owners of a pigeon farm in Maine. Working with them are Tilford Sanford, Mary Elizabeth Johnson, Horace Crowe, and Shirley Tate. These famous people are supplying carrier pigeons for the war in Europe which is still raging. Speaking of the war, I notice Harold Sides, John Perry, and Paul Upright have enlisted to help the Allies. Over in our own country Annie Reece has established a home for the war refugee children. Serving along with her as nurses are Ruby Rogers, LaNell Shuckle, Virginia Collins, and Elizabeth Smith.

The advertising field has been given a splendid break as I see Gaither Critz modeling men's sports clothes in all the leading magazines of the country, while Janis Dayvault is advertising tooth paste in a flashing way.

Since Gracie Allen and George Burns have retired from the radio and screen, two of our former classmates have followed in their footsteps only to be more successful and more popular throughout the country. Can you imagine who they are? None other than Nell Price and J. C. Safrit. Another successful radio team is Wynema Honeycutt and Jim Russell, who sponsor a Dance Club featuring C. L. Maulden and his famous orchestra, with Thelma Furr as guest artist when the Opera House can spare her.

A large number of our classmates have taken that fatal step. Among them are Bernice Winecoff, Frances Scarboro, Laura Lewis, and Eunice Lovett, whose Army Romeo finally returned. Here's wishing them a most successful life with their respective husbands. Nan Dulaney has been married six times, divorced five, and is now vacationing in Reno, if you get what I mean. Some people have a hobby of collecting antiques and others stamps, but Nan's hobby is evidently collecting husbands.

Up in New Jersey Julia Thompson has opened a music shop with W. A. Ritchie as her manager. Virginia Hartness is now the leader of a famous all-girl orchestra which is at the present touring the continent. Also located in New Jersey is the "Photo Shop" which is managed by Alta Linn and Blonnie Pethel.

cannon report

In the recreational field Coralie Roberts and Ruth Torrence now own the world's largest and most successful ice skating rink. Assisting them in teaching folks to skate are "Dot" Murph, who is now Sojna Henie's newest competition, Jackie Rogers, Dorothy Walters, Robert Poston and Joe Douglas.

All the leading newspapers are now carrying the story of the two famous explorers, Murray Jackson and Walter Goodman, who recently sailed to Africa to try to uncover the buried treasures of the famous chieftain, Lukijiye Zwkiev.

Ronald Huss and James McCall are the proud owners of the famous "Circus of Entertainment." In the circus is Carol Overcash, brave and fearless lion tamer, Hoyle Efrid and his famous dogs that are almost "human," Ruby Morgan, the dazzling bareback rider, Lillian Cassell, who owns a hot dog grill, Marvel Teal, who is a jockey in the "Steeple Chase Races," and Lucille Safrit, featured as a snake charmer.

The X. Y. Z. Club has just recently opened in Chicago with Karl Fisher as the manager; Frances Powell, as the hostess; and Homer Fisher, as the bouncer. Buddy Munday turned out to be a glamour boy and is hitting all the high spots along Broadway at the present.

The newspapers are playing up the contest sponsored by the National Broadcasting Company, in which they are to select "Miss Television." Estelle Peele and Betty Dellinger, two of our former classmates, are contestants and are running right up at the top of the list.

If you were to turn on your radio about 10:15 you would have the pleasure of hearing a dramatic serial entitled "Live and Let Live" written by Julia Driver, the famed author and being dramatized by Helen Alexander, Ray Lamb, Mabel Stirewalt, J. D. McCorkle, and Maxine Lumsden.

Gaynelle Cook, who wrote our class poem, has turned out to be the poet of the age! Why even the best critics of England concede that she out-Shakespeares their own Shakespeare!

After finishing college Bobby McClary just naturally went in for reforms. He's reformed the schools, the churches, police, movies, radio, the heathen, and now he has turned his attention to foreign relations. So now if the world isn't a better place to live in, it certainly isn't Bobby's fault.

The "Land Sakes Alive, You Get Hurt and We Pay Off" accident insurance company has just recently been merged into a corporation with Claude Moss serving as chairman of the board of directors; Nay Dell Mattox, serving as secretary and Charlie Hunt serving as treasurer. Employed as insurance salesman for this famous concern are Harold Belk, Edward Osborne, Sarah Helms, and Louise Dayvault.

Jack Scarboro has turned out to be a very successful painter who specializes in portraits. At the present he is working on a portrait of the President of the United States.

Speaking of Georgia, Ralph Hoke has become the governor of this famous and prosperous state, while J. E. Wise and George Russell have accepted prominent governmental positions along with Mr. Hoke. Fredrick Brown is North Carolina's representative to Congress and he is doing an excellent job of it; although I can't help but believe he got his start in our own Session House.

Hoyle McCombs has followed in the footsteps of his father and gone into the grocery business, while Donald Laws, Julius Lewis, William Gibbons, and Philip Meacham have opened a very modern and exclusive cafeteria in our own city of Kannapolis. They have been very successful partly because of the delicious food served under the supervision of two capable and efficient chefs, Leona Graybeal and Dorothy Jenkins.

Virginia Law has become the dean at a college in Virginia. Serving on the teaching staff of this outstanding college are J. D. Cline, Lois Gray, Hazel Karriker, and Ethel King, while Helen Sides is now working in the Library of Congress in Washington, D. C.

Ruby Lunsford, with the help of Martha Goodnight and J. W. Nelson has opened a shop "Ye Date Bureau," which has as its purpose, "keeping the Kannapolis folks from being lonely."

The "Lady in Red" and the toast of New York is none other than Mary Alice Beaver, who got her start by wearing little red bows and suits while she was still in high school.

Marjorie Teal is employed by the National Broadcasting Company while Lucille Mencer and Edith Hollaway are airline hostesses on a transcontinental airplane, "The Sky Bird."

Dorothea Cloninger, Mary Cline, and Mary Early are now famous promoters of safety. They preach safety, teach safety, practice safety, and give safety demonstrations to anyone who appears to be interested, while Elliott Brown is now the pastor of a church in New England.

Garleen Pennington now owns a most outstanding beauty salon on 52nd Street. She has employed Hughleen Goodnight, Christeen Dees, Sarah Henry, and Helen Towell as her beauty operators.

A famous lecturer of the world on "Life Begins at 20" and who tours the continent is Lorene Freeze who has as her companions and helpers, Luella Winecoff and Louise Sides.

Vessie Chapman is the famed author of the book "How to Hold a Man," which is very popular. The women of America literally fight for the copies. Robert Harmon and Clyde Hudspeth are the publicity managers and are kept busy night and day.

Sarah Deal has gone into the field of interior decorating while Mary Bell Cashion speaks to all the little children of America on a most interesting subject, "Why Birds Build Nests." Serving as her managers and handling her fan mail are Ruby Styles and Sarah Scarboro.

Dorothy Pethel is employed by a Hollywood firm as chief salesman for the new "Oomph" perfume which is endorsed by Ann Sheridan, while Lillian Messer has turned out to be the world's greatest toe dancer.

Ann Ketchum and Gladys Lear have invented a "Grow Tall Tonic" which is very popular throughout the country. Its great success is probably due to the efficient publicity managed by Clarence Walker.

Mary Frances Bassinger entered the Ziegfeld Follies after finishing school and Maurvorean Puntch became the Paris buyer for an exclusive dress shop in New York.

Margaret Hess turned out to be a policewoman and is now serving on the New York police force. (She gets her man.)

Ola Mae Barbee is a very successful actress on Broadway with her managers, Frank Smith and Vencie Nichols while Bryant Allman is a very distinguished piano player and often plays for the crowned heads of Europe.

Ernestine Price and Leota Crenshaw are managing a dress shop in Alabama and serving as their sales girls and models are Arietta Johnson, Bertha Freeman, and Pauline Stewart.

Now Forest Mahaffey has never married but has remained a bachelor in spite of the fortune inherited from his rich relatives. He prefers the life of a simple bachelor with a book, gun, dog, and a fishing pole.

Sarah Yates is very happy because she has become the only thing in life that she desired to be, a missionary to China. She took along with her Edith Oates, Laura Moon, and Mary Propst, to help her in this great work.

Paul Kearns has become one of the world's most outstanding specialists and the folks pay him a fortune just to hear him tell them to eat less and exercise more. Ruth Carter is employed as his most capable nurse. (Mr. Kearns is a very accomplished "Penny Magician" on the sideline, and he entertains his little patients in this manner.)

Clarence Pitts and Clarence Randolph, after leaving school got smart and invented a contraption for piping home all the oil under the North Pole. Naturally they became immensely wealthy, retired and at the present have taken up golf.

Suddenly I realized that this was all of my classmates that graduated in the class of '49 and I was very startled to see next the vague image of my own face! I had been permitted to know the future of all my classmates; and now only my fate remained. What would it be? Eagerly I leaned forward to gain a clearer view of my activities in the future when CRASH!!! and I realized that I was being soused with water, and also I was back in the circus. People were talking very loudly, a man was trying to push the crowd back so I could get some air. Suddenly and a little foolishly I realized that I had run into the mirror and had been knocked out, also I was very disappointed because I knew that my future must remain unknown. But at the same time I was very happy to think that all of my former classmates were so successful and K. H. S. should be very proud of each member of the class of '40 because each and every one has made a name for himself in the world.

DORIS FAGGART, Prophetess.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT

We, the members of the Senior Class of 1940, being of sane mind and body, void of any threatening weakness or insanity, but realizing the uncertainty of our earthy existence, and wish to avoid any disturbance on the part of any inheritant heirs, do hereby, collectively and individually, will, bequeath, grant, bestow, and give the following gifts in the manner and form following:

ITEM I

To the members of the Junior Class we gladly and willingly bequeath the Senior expenses and few privileges, hoping that they can meet both with a smile.

ITEM II

To the school we leave our faculty advisors and our ability to find two sides to any and every question.

ITEM III

To the teachers and principal we leave our respect and desire that next year students will study harder than we and keep up the school spirit.

ITEM IV

To the Individuals:

I, Mildred Heintz, do hereby will and bequeath my wit to Hamilton Carery, hoping he will get by with it as I have.

I, Jack "Gob" Scarboro, do hereby will and bequeath my ability to get along with Miss Alexander to Bill Byrd, seeing that he needs it.

I, Ruby Morgan, do hereby will and bequeath my long fingernails to Dorothy Hampton, hoping that she will not bite them off as she does her own.

I, Lois Gray, do hereby will and bequeath my seat in chapel to Garland "Gabby" Donaldson, hoping he will get to use it some day.

I, Dorothy Walters, do hereby will and bequeath my height to Frances Daves, hoping that with her own and mine she will be quite a moderate young girl.

On this the eighteenth day of April, nineteen hundred and fortieth year of our Lord, I do hereby declare this to be the Last Will and Testament of the before said Senior Class of nineteen hundred and forty in the presence of witnesses.
